Poem

(ó Treasa Ní Ailpín – "Sonas is Só")

Breithlá mo Dhaidí A bhí ann inné, Is rinne mo Mhamaí Císte don tae.	My Daddy's birthday Was yesterday, And my Mommy made A cake for tea.	Tháinig an Tíogar Is tháinig an Béar – D'ith siad an císte Is na coinnle go léir!	The Tiger came And the Bear came – They ate the cake And all the candles.

Story

(ó Treasa Ní Ailpín – "Na Trí Mhuicín")

Bhí na trí mhuicín ina suí go moch ar maidin.	The three little pigs were awake early in the morning.
Chuaigh siad amach ag obair.	They went out to work.
Rinne Dónall Muicín teach beag tuí.	Donall Pig made a small straw house.
Rinne Colm Muicín teach beag adhmaid.	Colm Pig made a small wood house.
Rinne Brian Muicín teach beag bríce.	Brian Pig made a small brick house.
Tháinig an mac tire gránna go dtí an teach beag tuí.	The nasty wolf came to the little straw house.
" Lig isteach mé. Lig isteach mé, a chara mo chroí," arsa an mac tire.	" Let me in. Let me in, my dear friend," said the wolf.
... ansin shéid sé agus shéid sé agus leag sé an teach beag tuí.	... then he blew and he blew and he knocked down the little straw house.

Song

(ó "Tá Mo Chleamhnas Déanta")

Tá Mo Chleamhnas Déanta	My Match Was Made
Tá mo chleamhnas déanta ó arú aréir	My match has been made since the night before last
's ní mó ná go dtaithníonn an bhean liom féin	and the woman hardly pleases myself
ach fágfaidh mé i mo dhiaidh í	but I'll leaver her behind me
'gus imeoidh mé liom féin	and I'll take off by myself
ar fud na gcoillte craobhach.	throughout the branching woods.
Shiúil mise soir agus shiúil mise siar.	I walked east and I walked west.
Shiúil mise Corcaigh 'gus sráide Bh'l'áth Cliath,	I walked Cork and the streets of Dublin, ach sámháil de mo chailín deas ní fhaca mise riamh.	but the likeness of my lovely girl I never saw .
'Sí an bhean dubh a d'fhág mo chroí cráite.	She's the dark woman who left my heart broken.
D'éirigh mé ar maidin dhá uair roimh an lá	I awoke in the morning two hours before the day
'gus fuair mé litir ó mo mhíle grá.	and I got a letter from my true love.
'gus chuala mé an smóilín 's an londubh á rá	I heard the little thrush and the blackbird say
gur éalaigh mo ghrá thar sáile.	that my love had fled over the ocean.
